Dear Parent/Guardian

As part of the Tuesday Learning and Wellbeing program, Year 11 students will participate in sporting and recreation activities in Term 2.

Your child has selected one of the activities listed below. If the selected activity requires them to leave the school precinct, then parental permission is required and there may be a cost associated with this activity. However, if your child has selected SOCCER, BASKETBALL, DODGEBALL or VOLLEYBALL, the permission note below does not need to be returned and there will not be an associated cost as these activities are held on school grounds.

	BUS COSTS This amount will be invoiced to you from the school	VENUE COSTS This amount is to be provided each week!
Ten Pin Bowling	$21.00 ($3 per week over 7 weeks)	$42 ($6 per week over 7 weeks)
Snap Fitness	$21.00 ($3 per week over 7 weeks)	$35 ($5 per week over 7 weeks)
Basketball	Activity based at school – free of charge
Soccer	Activity based at school – free of charge
Dodgeball	Activity based at school – free of charge
Volleyball	Activity based at school – free of charge

This sport session is a part of normal school activities and therefore all normal school requirements are to be adhered to, and participation is compulsory.

If you have selected to participate in an activity off campus, please complete the following permission note and return to the box in MPS office of Mrs Knight, no later than Friday 28th April 2017.

By completing this form you are acknowledging responsibility to the above mentioned fees associated with this activity. If your child is away at any time; unfortunately, these fees still need to be paid to cover the venue and bus hire costs.
